ARGUMENT

Richard Busch, lead counsel for Bridgeport, is also lead counsel in two trials set for September 2, 2008 and October 14, 2008. The first trial is in the Central District of California in the matter of F.B.T. Productions, LLC. v. Aftermath Records, Case No. CV 07-3314. As shown in the scheduling order (attached as Exhibit A hereto), on November 20, 2007, the court set the pretrial conference in that matter for August 18, 2008, with trial set to commence on September 2, 2008. Trial is estimated to last for five days, or until September 8, 2008.

Mr. Busch is also lead counsel in a subsequent trial in the Eastern District of Michigan in the matter of Eight Mile Style, LLC v. Apple Computer, Inc., No. 07-cv-13164. As shown in the scheduling order (attached as Exhibit B hereto), the pretrial conference in that matter has been set for September 18, 2008, with trial set to commence on October 14, 2008.

The Court's current trial schedule directly conflicts with the dates set in the Central District of California matter. Immediately following the trial in California, lead counsel for Bridgeport will be appearing and preparing for trial in the Eastern District of Michigan. Due to the necessity for lead counsel to be involved in pretrial filings, the pretrial conference, and in trial preparation in this matter, Bridgeport respectfully requests a new trial date any time after November 5, 2008.

Bridgeport has conferred with counsel for the defendants. The Universal defendants do not object to a request to move the trial to a date in November or early December, with their preference being early November. Counsel for Robert Hill has indicated he will advise whether there are any conflicts by the morning of January 24, 2008. Bridgeport will advise the Court immediately if any conflicts are found.

DATED: January 23, 2008

Respectfully submitted,

KING & BALLOW
